Relevant Background Information -- Please provide any relevant background information that you feel would be supportive of your candidacy to fill the unexpired term. Sample information could include: educational background, prior servant leadership experiences, and occupational experiences. This information will be included in the public review process to fill the vacancy. All applicants are invited to submit questions, if they so wish, for Board members to answer. These questions should be focused on the roles and responsibilities of a School Board member. No questions will be taken on specific issues.
